Dennis joins Blue Marlin team

Los Angeles native Jordan Dennis has joined the staff at Blue Marlin Realty Group as a realtor.

With three years of real estate experience in the California area and nine months in Florida, Dennis joins the team at Blue Marlin after relocating to the area with his family a year ago.

Dennis, his wife and two children moved to the Destin area in February 2012 with the Marine Corps and currently resides on Eglin Air Force Base.

Dennis has more than 16 years of active military duty. His past work experience includes military aviation maintenance and building jet engines.

He is currently attending Embry Riddle Aeronautical University and will graduate in 2015 with a degree in project management.

His passion and experience in the Marine Corps has helped him find a niche for military buyers and homeowners in the real estate business.
